

Free Narcan, Opioid Overdose Emergency Kits

The Robin Foundation is certified by the Florida Department of Family Services as a certified distributor for NARCAN and its community. Members of the Foundation meet with those addicts that are still using drugs and need Narcan in their possession in case of an overdose for themselves or others. The Robin Foundation is adamant about saving lives and giving those in need of a message of hope, and how to recover from the disease of addiction. Along with Free Narcan the Foundation members are pass out literature of where there are local recovery meetings and online as well.

The Foundation will also be looking to pass out Narcan to local business for their employees and guests of their establishments such as faith-based organizations, restaurants, and retail stores.

If you are in need of Narcan whether for yourself a family member, a friend or a business, please contact us so we can deliver Narcan to you as soon as possible
